HONORS

Grandest in America's History

Naval Military and Civic Parade Stupendous

The Conquering Hero Royally Welcomed By His Countrymen.

Honored By the Grandest Pageant Ever Witnessed in the United States—Admirals, Commodores, Generals, Captains and all Classes of Common People mingle Together to Honor a Genuine American Admiral With Displays of Unbounded Enthusiasm—Dewey Appeared on Deck at Eight o'clock this Morning—Two Million Visitors to Honor Dewey, the Man of the Hour—The Naval Parade Started at 1 o'clock Sharp.

By Associated Press to the Journal. New York, Sept. 29.—Long before sunrise the blue jackets on Admiral Dewey's flagship were hard at work preparing for the most magnificent naval demonstration which had ever taken place in an American port. A like activity was in progress on the other sea-faring riding at anchor.

The scene was a glorious one, as the sun's rays glistened on the white sides of the larger vessels and the black hulls of the smaller ones. The weather could not have been more beautiful. Dewey made his appearance shortly after 8 o'clock, in uniform. A large number of vessels of various kinds were already lying beside the flagship, and he received a warm greeting.

The Steamer Sandy Hook, carrying Mayor Van Wyck and committee, to formally welcome Admiral Dewey in the name of the city of New York, and with upwards of a thousand distinguished, guests and officials on board steamed away shortly after 10 o'clock to make a visit to the Olympia and start the naval parade.

At 1 o'clock sharp the squadron got under way. It was an inspiring moment as the column started up the harbor and the great naval parade began to be a reality. Steamer Sandy Hook having on board many and representatives of the city steamed alongside the Olympia.

After the Olympia came the cruiser

New York. The Chicago brought up the rear. Following the New York were the Indiana and Massachusetts. In the rear of these came the Lancaster, a type of the old vessels. Then followed the gunboat Marietta, with the auxiliary.

The cruiser Scorpion steamed abreast five torpedo boats and following them a lot of revenue cutters. Next were the transports Sedgewick, McPherson and McClelland and the hospital ship Missouri.

Then began the civic and maritime aspect of the parade. Having on board representative of the naval militia, came the steamer Monmouth, followed by other boats with members of the naval militia. Then the General Slocum and the Glen Island, with members of the general committee of citizens, the Mount Hope with the legislative branch of the city government, the Warwick with the heads of the city departments and the Mattewan with the members of the press. Ninety-eight yachts, led by the Corsair, and Sir Thomas Lipton's yacht Erin. After the yachts came 100 steamships and the merchant marine.

The third and last division, consisted of more than one hundred handsomely decorated tugs, yachts and pleasure craft etc. The parade was off the battery at 1:45 and large crowds assembled there and cheered time and again, as the warships passed.

From this point until Grant's tomb was reached there was a succession of scenes of enthusiasm rarely if ever equalled.

The roof of every building commanding a view of the river was crowded with people, who literally went wild cheering the admiral.

The crowd waiting at Grant's tomb was the largest ever gathered there.

The parade was an hour and fifteen minutes passing Fulton Street.

For President.

By Associated Press to the Journal. REMONSTRANCE, Ala., Sept. 29.—Editor Horace White, of the New York Evening Post, who is here, is of the opinion that Admiral Dewey would not decline the nomination for president if it were tendered him. He thinks Dewey and Joe Wheeler will be nominated.

Bad Accident.

W. M. Parker, of Redding, Cal., who is in this city selling horses, had an arm broken yesterday. While Mr. Parker was saddling a wild bronco, the animal struck him with his fore foot, knocked him down and broke his arm. The broken arm was promptly set by Dr. Mott, physician for Court Sherwood Forest, No. 17 Foresters of America, Mr. Parker is out today, but it will be several weeks before he will feel like handling horses.

Mr. Parker says he is a member of the Woodmen of the World, Camp 236, at Redding, Cal., and an Odd Fellow, a member of Lodge 113, Chico, Cal.; also a Forester, belonging to Ancient Order No. 8,364, Chico, Cal., and the American order, located at The Dallas, Ore.

Later.—As we go to press the gentleman is again in Dr. Mott's office, being patched up from the effect of a collision with one of the big street cars, which occurred on State street this afternoon. He was knocked down and considerably bruised, receiving a bad scalp wound on the back of his head. A cursory examination showed no broken bones but there may be internal injuries.

W. L. Whitlock and T. C. White, of Whitlock, passed through Salem this morning to Monmouth, where Mr. Whitlock will reside in the near future.

"Best on the market for coughs and colds; for group it has no equal," writes Henry R. Whitlock, South-Central, Conn., of One Minute Cough Cure. Stones Drug Store.

Crossing the Rockies.

The most delightful ride across the continent is through Utah and Colorado, over what is known as "The Scenic Route of the World." It matters not at what season of the year the trip is made, at no time does the scenery grow monotonous. It is an ever changing panorama of the beauties of nature. One moment you are passing through gorges walled in by rocks thousands of feet high, and the next you are soaring the snow line, skirting peaks that tower above you until they seem almost to reach the sky. One of the characteristics of the Colorado climate is that the extreme of temperature is never met with. It is neither so cold in winter nor warm in summer, as upon the lines of railroads which cross the deserts and plains. The traveler over the Rio Grande Western also has the privilege of a stopover, if he so desires at Salt Lake City, or anywhere between Ogden and Denver, on all classes of tickets.

For information, as to rates, etc., and for descriptive pamphlets, call on the nearest Ticket Agent of the O. R. & N. Co. or Southern Pacific Co., or address J. D. MANNFIELD, Gen'l Agt., Rio Grand Western Railway, 143 Third street, Portland, Oregon.

BOERS READY

British Cabinet is in Session.

Transvaal's Last Reply Received By England

Boers Firm and Have Not Receded From Their Position.

By Associated Press to the Journal. Cape Town, Sept. 29.—The Transvaal reply to the last British dispatch has been sent from Pretoria. It is to the effect that the republic strictly adheres to the London convention, and asks nothing further. The question of suzerainty of Great Britain over Transvaal is not touched upon in the dispatch.

London, Sept. 29.—A meeting of the British cabinet on whose deliberation depends practically war or peace in South Africa was begun this afternoon. President Kruger's reply to the last note of the imperial government has been received and was the pivot of today's discussion. The cabinet adjourned at 3:15 p. m. and the ministers were heartily cheered by the waiting crowds.

Dispatches from the cape continue the story of military activity in the Transvaal, Natal and Cape colony. Boers are concentrating in the country contiguous to Natal, where the first outbreak of hostilities is likely to occur. Excitement continues at fever heat.

There is great activity at the war office in Pretoria. The artillery reserves are called out. Arrangements to defend the frontier is completed, and the work of equipment is proceeding rapidly.

Boers Ready.

London, Sept. 29.—A cable dispatch to the Times from Cape Town says: "The Boers would have taken the initiative by now but for the scarcity of the rains, not yet being sufficient. Probably there will be great difficulties in providing food supplies for the people remaining at Johannesburg after hostilities have commenced."

HAMBURG, Sept. 29.—Two cargoes of arms and ammunition leave Hamburg for Rotterdam Friday for the Transvaal, comprising 50,000 improved mortars for dynamite charges.

African Free State Resolves. London, Sept. 29.—The Volks-Raad resolutions which united the African Free State with the Transvaal are as follows:

The Eloquent Eye

Sometimes loses its power; it needs help to see things closely. A skilled optician will test the eyes free of charge and accurately adjust glasses to suit the sight. If you can be fitted from the large assortment kept in stock it will be a matter of but a few minutes to do so. If glasses must be made it will take a few days. If any one needs glasses and is too poor to pay a moderate price, we will make a discount or in some cases present them with glasses.

PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT.

Said to Have Been Established in Venezuela By the Insurgents.

By Associated Press to the Journal. WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Campbell of the cruiser Detroit, cables the naval department that rumors are current that General Castro, the Venezuelan insurgent leader, has established a provisional government at Valencia, and that the Venezuelan government is treating with him. Affairs look more settled.

SHOT HIS WIFE THEN HIMSELF

Walter Clyatt of Albina Attempts Double Murder.

By Associated Press to the Journal. PORTLAND, Sept. 29.—Walter Clyatt, a plumber, aged 31, living at 394 Russell street, near Union avenue, Albina, shot and killed himself at 1:30 o'clock this morning. Before taking his life, he shot his wife in the back of the head. She is still alive, but the doctors say she cannot live. The weapon used was a 32-caliber revolver.

Jealousy is supposed to have been the cause of the deed. They had been to the exposition, and returned apparently in good spirits. No trouble is known to have existed between them. Clyatt was a temperate man. He had not been in the habit of carrying a revolver, and no one knew that he had one in his possession.

The couple had retired and were alone in the house at the time. There was no light about the premises. The shot attracted the attention of a little girl in an adjoining house, and she gave the alarm. The police and coroner were at once notified. Physicians hurried to the scene and did what they could for the wounded woman, but they say that her death is but a question of a few hours.

The Clyatts have been here for about 18 years. The man had three brothers and three sisters living in Albina. His plumbing shop is in front of his dwelling. The remains were removed to the morgue, where an inquest will be held this afternoon.

PORACE DEFENCES WILL BE DESTROYED

By Associated Press to the Journal. NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: The movements of Generals MacArthur, Wheeler and Wheeler on Porace as reported by cable from Manila is what the war department has been anticipating for the last fortnight. The general plans of this movement are known to the officials, but they have refused to give out dispatches on this subject for fear the enemy will profit by them. The rainy weather has delayed the movement. The rainy weather has delayed the movement. It is known to the war department that a considerable force of the enemy is in the vicinity of Porace, and the general idea, it is believed, is to break up the defenses which the insurgents have prepared during the rainy season.

Porace is situated 11 miles from Bacolor and has a population of 8500.

GIGANTIC SWINDLE IN NEW ORLEANS

Wires Tapped and Members of the Cotton Exchange Robbed of $100,000.

By Associated Press to the Journal. NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 29.—Intense excitement prevails on cotton exchange here today and the directors have met and suspended business. The New York market closed today and the only quotations were from Liverpool.

In half an hour the reports showed that the Liverpool market had jumped nearly one cent. Operators were unable to explain the tremendous jump and the belief is that the wires had been tapped and a gigantic swindling game was afoot somewhere.

Directors officially announce that today's suspension was due to fraud. It is estimated that a loss suffered here by the swindle of over hundred thousand dollars.
